Below are the brand looked at by Sanjeev.

For the size of the room, we think we need to go for the 2 TON system. 1 TON is meant for a small bedroom.

Once we decided on the brand, we will have the technical folks inspecting our room, before installation.

We feel positive towards going for the Chaudhary brand.

CG Digital Pvt. LTD

Chaudhary Group supplies LG brand as well as it's own brand of Air Conditioners.

Currently we feel it is OK to go for The CG brand as it is most probably made by a Chinese company with the CG sticker applied at the end. So I think they would be good enough.
